

Distinguished Lectures in the Social Sciences

INSTITUTE for ADVANCED STUDY in TOULOUSE

THEME FOR 2014

Political MOTIVATION

The Institute for Advanced Study in Toulouse continues its special public lecture series, the IAST Distinguished Lectures in the Social Sciences, given by internationally renowned scholars on a theme of interest to all concerned citizens.

→ September 25:

Frans DE WAAL, primatologist, Emory University
“Our Inner Ape: War, Peace & Politics”

→ November 20:

John ALDRICH, political scientist, Duke University
“Democracy really is the worst form of government,
except all the others...”

→ December 4:

Elizabeth WOOD, political scientist, Yale University
“Political violence”

Venue: Amphitheater CUJAS at the University Toulouse Capitole

Address: Anciennes Facultés, 2 rue des Puits-Creusés, 31000 Toulouse

Time: 18:00 to 20:00

* Public lectures open to all,
registration is not required.

www.iast.fr/dl

